

Gems

GEMS is the outcome of ISLA's original study of the parallels between the world of precious stones and that of wood, to create a new collection of ceramic surfaces for contemporary designers.

The aesthetic of GEMS, inspired by rustic wood, is characterised by intriguing chromatic variations, unexpected veining and the fascinating effects of wear, also characteristic of hard stones. With its four highly fashionable colours – Bianco, Agata, Quarzo and Fumée – GEMS expresses the intensity and depth of the materials most loved and sought after by modern designers.

Its textures, which enhance its vivid colours, are fully appreciable with the different laying patterns made possible by the collection's slat sizes and the decorative effects available with the Shangai version, born from the apparently random combination of narrow slats of different lengths and widths.
